

A JOURNALIST INTERVIEWS GOD

“Can You be more specific about the human soul?”

Based on her recently published book, A Journalist Interviews God on How Souls Grow in Faith, Hope, and Love, Dr. Elaine McCreary will take the role of a journalist to interview the ultimate, elusive Source. The topic of her interview is of interest to every awakening soul: the theme of one's own identity, purpose for living, and specific methods for making progress. Elaine will guide us through the journalist's six essential questions for this interview: Who is this rational soul that is seeking answers? What is the nature of spiritual development? Why would people be motivated to seek spiritual growth? When does soul growth and expansion occur? Where do we find visible evidence of spiritual growth? How is such spiritual transformation accomplished? Fresh answers to these specific questions will be drawn directly from the Sacred Writings of the Bahá'í Faith—the most recent divine guidance to reach humanity.

Sunday, February 22, 2026 at 2:00 PM

Location: University of Victoria Multifaith Center

West Campus Gate, next to Finnerty Gardens, Parking Lot 6

Free Parking on Sundays*

Campus Association for Bahá'í Studies

Welcome to an informal, interactive, and uplifting afternoon with Dr. Elaine McCreary, where she will share spiritual insights gleaned from her newly released book, "A Journalist Interviews God on How Souls Grow in Faith, Hope, and Love." Elaine is a member of the Bahá'í International Community and is the Creative Director of "Your Personal Art of Living" (www.PersonalArtofLiving.com), an educational enterprise that brings to mid-life, mid-career adults a range of practical methods to manage life and free up energies to be a force for good in their communities and beyond. She has given talks on human resource development in Canada, Europe, and the Middle East.

A JOURNALIST INTERVIEWS GOD

“Can You be more specific about the human soul?”

Based on her recently published book, A Journalist Interviews God on How Souls Grow in Faith, Hope, and Love, Dr. Elaine McCreary will take the role of a journalist to interview the ultimate, elusive Source. The topic of her interview is of interest to every awakening soul: the theme of one's own identity, purpose for living, and specific methods for making progress. Elaine will guide us through the journalist's six essential questions for this interview: Who is this rational soul that is seeking answers? What is the nature of spiritual development? Why would people be motivated to seek spiritual growth? When does soul growth and expansion occur? Where do we find visible evidence of spiritual growth? How is such spiritual transformation accomplished? Fresh answers to these specific questions will be drawn directly from the Sacred Writings of the Bahá'í Faith—the most recent divine guidance to reach humanity.

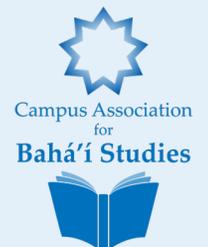

Sunday, February 22, 2026 at 2:00 PM

Location: University of Victoria Multifaith Center

West Campus Gate, next to Finnerty Gardens, Parking Lot 6

Free Parking on Sundays*

Welcome to an informal, interactive, and uplifting afternoon with Dr. Elaine McCreary, where she will share spiritual insights gleaned from her newly released book, “A Journalist Interviews God on How Souls Grow in Faith, Hope, and Love.” Elaine is a member of the Bahá'í International Community and is the Creative Director of “Your Personal Art of Living” (www.PersonalArtofLiving.com), an educational enterprise that brings to mid-life, mid-career adults a range of practical methods to manage life and free up energies to be a force for good in their communities and beyond. She has given talks on human resource development in Canada, Europe, and the Middle East.