

DECOLONIZATION and ME

Healing a Nation and Ourselves

With a focus on dialogue and healing together, Kristy McLeod will help us examine Indigenous and non-Indigenous responsibilities on Canadians moving forward in the process of Truth and Reconciliation:

- What does it mean to decolonize Canada?
- Why do we need to know the truth of injustices faced by Indigenous Peoples?
- Why should everyone take part in Truth and Reconciliation & justice?

Sunday, April 26, 2026 at 2:00 PM

Location: University of Victoria Multifaith Center
West Campus Gate, next to Finnerty Gardens, Parking Lot 6

Free Parking on Sundays*

Kristy is a registered member of the Métis Nation of B.C. with family roots in the Lac St. Anne and Red River Settlements. She completed a PhD in Curriculum and Instruction exploring Métis Identity and has been an educator in schools for 20+ years. She is Co-owner of PathWise Solutions Inc, an Indigenous-owned company focused on eLearning and training, and web solutions for diverse learning groups. Kristy has co-authored Decolonization and Me: Conversations about Healing a Nation and Ourselves and supports Indigenous authors through consulting services for Medicine Wheel Education. Past activities: Education Committee Chair, Métis Nation of Greater Victoria and Board Director at Large 2021–2025.